

Fairtrade word order exercise

The word order of the sentences below is wrong. Read each sentence and then write it out again using the correct word order. Remember words that begin a sentence always start with a capital letter and sentences should have a full stop at the end.

- grows a quarter of the world's tea China
- Tanzania in 80 000 Fairtrade farmers there are
- Farming in Congo 65% of people employs
- coffee or cocoa Fairtrade growers in Cameroon grow
- produces Peru Fairtrade coffee, cocoa, bananas and mangoes
- Fairtrade farmers El Salvador in have able to build been a pitch football their town in
- price the Fairtrade in Mexico supported has an fund educational
- the world's Brazil is coffee grower largest
- treated as equals farmers in Nicaragua feel that Fairtrade has meant that they are
- Uganda a farmer from used the money has he has received from growing Fairtrade coffee his daughter's school fees to pay for, expensive which are very