

The world in your life

Have you ever been on holiday to a country outside of the UK?
If so, where?

Can you name a company that makes any of the electrical equipment in your house, e.g. TV, stereo, fridge, etc.?
Can you name the country this company comes from?

If you have a car, what make of car is it?

Do you know which country the car was made in?

Do you regularly eat or drink any of the following: chocolate, bananas, oranges, nuts, sugar, coffee, tea? If so, can you name any of the countries that produce these items?

Have you ever thought about how you are connected to the world - everyday of your life?

Look at any of the labels in an item of clothing you are wearing today - where in the world was it made?

Do you ever eat in any of the fast food restaurants in the town where you live - if so, which ones?

If you are a fan of football, can you name players from any team that are from countries outside of the UK?

Can you name any restaurants in the town where you live that sell food that is not traditionally 'English' food? If so, what country does the food come from?