

For further information or to book a place:

Maria Wynn

International Relationship Officer
Directorate of Children and Family Services
Education Office
Huyton Hey Road
Huyton
Knowsley
L36 5YH

Tel: +44 (0)151 443 3272

Fax: +44 (0)151 443 3266

Email: maria.wynn@knowsley.gov.uk

Liverpool World Centre

www.liverpoolworldcentre.org.uk

Manchester Development Education Project

www.dep.org.uk

COMMUNITY COHESION
SUSTAINABLE SCHOOLS
INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL AWARD

EVERY CHILD, EVERYWHERE: THE GLOBAL DIMENSION IN PRACTICE

Knowsley Council

LIVERPOOL HOPE UNIVERSITY
TUESDAY 23RD JUNE 9.30AM-4.00PM

Aims of the Conference:

- To raise awareness of the Global Dimension and how it can be embedded across the school curriculum and through Initial Teacher Education (ITE)
- To showcase and share good practice between schools, ITE providers, Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) and the children's workforce
- To identify the support available to teachers, school leaders and ITE providers across the region
- To explore links with key agendas such as Sustainable Schools, Community Cohesion, International School Award, and Every Child Matters

Target audience:

Head teachers, International and Global Dimension co-ordinators, teachers, ITE/ Higher Education tutors, NGOs and Children's Workforce representatives.

Choice of workshops led by head teachers, school teachers and other experts from the North West and across the UK:

- Philosophy for Children
- Sustainable schools and the Global Dimension
- Achieving the International School Award
- A cross-curricular approach to the Global Dimension at secondary level
- Using participatory methods such as theatre for social change
- Evaluating the Global Dimension in your school
- Embedding the Global Dimension in ITE
- International primary curriculum in practice
- Practical examples of the above at foundation, primary and secondary level

Displays on the day:

- British Council
- Liverpool World Centre and Manchester Development Education Project
- Organisations Supporting Sustainable Schools
- Refugee Action
- National Museums Liverpool

Resources will be available to take away on the day, including links to a dedicated web-site.

Cost of the day: £50

There will be no fee for delegates from Knowsley Schools*

Programme for the day

9.00 – 9.30 Registration and refreshments

9.30 – 9.35 Welcome and introduction to the day

9.35 – 10.20 David Hicks – keynote speech

David Hicks is internationally recognised for his work on the need for a global and futures dimension in the curriculum. He is author of the book Teaching the Global Dimension: Key Principles and Effective Practice, with Cathie Holden, Routledge (2007), and Lessons for the Future: the Missing Dimension in Education, Trafford Publishing (2006).

10.20 – 10.40 Margaret Burr – keynote speech

Margaret Burr is Head of the Humanities Education Centre in Tower Hamlets, London. She has been involved in various forms of linking in schools for 20 years and recently developed the 'Toolkit for Linking: opportunities and challenges' for the UK One World Linking Association.

10.40 – 11.00 Q&A with keynotes

11.00 – 11.15 Break with refreshments

11.15 – 12.30 Workshops

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch and opportunity to visit display stands

13.30 – 14.45 Workshops

14.45 – 15.00 Mike Foster MP, Government Minister for the Department for International Development

15.00 – 15.40 Ted Cante – keynote speech

Ted Cante chairs the Institute of Community Cohesion and is an Associate Director of the IDeA. Ted was chief executive of Nottingham City Council for 11 years. Following his review of the causes of the disturbances in a number of northern towns and cities in 2001, the government adopted the policy of promoting 'community cohesion'. He chaired the panel which advised ministers on implementation of his recommendations.

15.40 – 16.00 Plenary and close